1. The appointment of KAO Kang as one of the six Vice-Chairmen of the Central People's Government Council has not been well received in Peiping. Many people think him not well qualified for the position and feel that the appointment is connected with the improper use of the resources of Manchuria, and that minority races will be exploited.
2. From Peiping also come complaints about the new National Anthem, which is considered ridiculous.
3. In Nanking complaints are common but are also essentially shallow carping rather than deep opposition. The similarity of the new flag to the USSR flag is an example.
